The Lord MARSHAL's ORDERS, to be obſerved in the Abbey-Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter, on the Day of His MAJESTY's Royal CORONATION, the 20th of this Inſtant October.

20. Oct. 1714.

WHEREAS His Majeſty hath commanded that Care be taken that the Church and Choir of Weſtminſter-Abbey be kept free for His Majeſty's Royal Proceeding: Theſe are to give Notice, That no Perſon whatſoever is to be admitted within the Door of the Choir, but ſuch as ſhall produce Tickets from the Earl of Suffolk, Deputy Earl-Marſhal of England, until the Entrance of His Majeſty's Proceeding.

That none will be admitted into any of the Galleries in the Body of the Church, from the great Weſt Door to the Choir-Door, after Seven a Clock on Wedneſday Morning, nor to any of the Galleries within or belonging to the Choir, after Eight of the Clock at the fartheſt.

And that all the Peers and others who are to go in the Proceeding, are to meet in the Houſe of Lords, in their Robes, and with their Coronets and Caps, by Eight of the Clock on Wedneſday Morning: And each Peer's Servant who carries the Robes, is to be admitted into the Back-Door next to the Parliament-Stairs.

And that all others who are appointed to go in the ſaid Proceeding, are to meet in the Court of Requeſts at the ſame Hour without fail; it being His Majeſty's Royal Intention, that the Proceſſion ſhall begin to move down into the Hall preciſely at Nine of the Clock; and ſuch as come not at the Time prefix'd will be excluded.

Note, That thoſe who come in with the Earl Marſhal's Tickets will be admitted at the North and South-Eaſt Doors, and the Tickets are to be delivered to the Earl-Marſhal's Servants at the Galleries for which the ſame are directed.

The Peereſſes who are to be in the Abbey as Spectators, are deſired to come in at the South-Eaſt Door, and to go up the Stairs in the South Croſs, and paſſing by the Peers Seats and the Theatre, are to ſeat themſelves on the Benches upon the North Side thereof.

And whereas the Surveyor-General was by an Order in Council, dated the 9th of this Inſtant October, directed to prepare a Paſſage for the Lords Coaches, who are to come through Channel-Row croſs the New Palace-yard into the Old Palace-yard, and there alight at the Stairs leading up to the Painted Chamber and Court of Requeſts; and was further directed to make Flaps through the Rails in both the ſaid Palace-yards, for the ſaid Coaches to paſs through. Theſe are to give Notice, That all the Coaches of the Nobility and others, who are to come to the ſaid Palace-yards, are, after the ſetting down of their Company there, to move away by Lindſey-Houſe, and thence to go round by Hyde-Park Corner; and in the Evening they are to return the ſame Way by Hyde-Park and Lindſey-Houſe, as aforeſaid, to the Old Palace-Yard, to take up their Company again.

And that no Hackney-Coaches, Carts or Drays, will be ſuffered to paſs that Day through any Part of Weſtminſter beyond Whitehall.

I Do appoint John Nutt, Printer in the Savoy, to Print theſe Orders; And that no other Perſon do preſume to Print the ſame.

19 October, 1714. SUFFOLK M.
